

MVP Submission Form

Welcome to Law360's MVP submission form.

This is a copy of the questions to guide you through the online submission process.

To access the submission form, click here.

Questions? Email series@law360.com.

- Nominee Name
- Nominee Law Firm Name (For outside PR professionals: Please enter the attorney's law firm, not your PR firm name.)
- Nominee Practice Area (For the MVP series, we only accept nominations in the following practice areas: aerospace & defense, appellate, banking, bankruptcy, benefits, capital markets, class action, construction, competition/antitrust, consumer protection, cybersecurity & privacy, employment, energy, environmental, fintech, food & beverage, fund formation, government contracts, health care, hospitality, immigration, insurance, intellectual property, international arbitration, international trade, legal ethics & malpractice, life sciences, media & entertainment, mergers & acquisitions, Native American, personal injury & medical malpractice, private equity, product liability, project finance, real estate, retail & e-commerce, securities, sports & betting, tax, technology, telecommunications, transportation, trials, and white collar.) For more information on our practice areas, click here.
- List UP TO FIVE of the nominee's most significant achievements from Sept 1, 2018, to Sept 1, 2019 (up to 250 words each). The form provides five separate sections - one for each achievement. You do not have to provide as many as five achievements, but you cannot list more than five. For each matter, be as specific as possible about the attorney's role, key dates, and what took place during the time frame. Include specifics such as jurisdiction, case names and deal info, including the companies involved and the dollar amount. Explain the significance of the achievement.
- What distinguishes this attorney from his/her peers? Describe his/her influence. (500 words max).
- Anything else we should know? (500 words max.)