“This is America. . . a brilliant diversity spread like stars, like a thousand points of light in a broad and peaceful sky.” President George H. W. Bush¹

“Why are we having all these people from shole countries come here?”
President Donald J. Trump²

INTRODUCTION

1. On March 13, 2020, in response to the Coronavirus (“COVID-19”) pandemic, President Donald J. Trump (“President Trump”) declared a general “national emergency”.
2. On April 22, 2020, President Trump issued a proclamation (“PP 10014”) suspending all entries to any “alien” without an immigrant visa valid on April 22, 2020, citing “impact” (without saying what the impact was) on immigration to the U.S. labor market.³
3. The Proclamation supposedly accounted for exceptions for immigrant visa holders that are physicians, nurses, or other healthcare professionals and for “any alien whose entry would be in the national interest, as determined by the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, or their respective designees. No policies, instructions or directions for such exceptions were ever published

4. Plaintiffs here are 149 Diversity Visa program selectees and their derivative beneficiaries from 14 different countries and their derivative beneficiaries, who live outside of the United States. Contrary to Defendant President Trumps opinion of Diversity Visa winners, these individuals include successful business people who intend to create jobs for American workers in the United States, healthcare professionals who could help fight the hold that the Coronavirus Pandemic has on our country, engineers, academics, and more and they are spouses and children who too hope to come to America to live, learn, grow, and share with us in the dream that this country gives to all who find themselves fortunate enough to live here.
5. Individuals to whom the Proclamation applied included pending Diversity Visa applicants at various stages of the application process as well as individuals whose visas had already been approved and issued, but which have expired without admission to the United States due travel restrictions put into place because of the pandemic. These include (1) Diversity Visa recipients who have confirmed their qualifications, submitted their Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Application and supporting documents, and are awaiting interviews; (2) Diversity Visa recipients who have been interviewed and are waiting for a decision; and (3) Diversity Visa recipients who have passed their interviews, had visas issued, and need only arrive in America during the time allotted on their approved visas (usually six months).⁴

6. The April 22, 2020 proclamation was set to expire on June 23, 2020, unless extended by President Trump, rendering the proclamation amorphous and potentially unending in its expiry date due to the ongoing pandemic. At least one lawsuit related to Diversity lottery winners was filed over this proclamation but was dismissed because the proclamation was time limited and would expire prior to the time that the Diversity lottery winners had to be adjudicated and enter the United States (September 30, 2020).
7. On June 22, 2020, President Trump issued a new proclamation extending PP 10014 through December 31, 2020.⁵
8. The new proclamation extended the initial bans in the April proclamation until December 31, 2020. Like the April 22, 2020 proclamation, the June 22,

⁴ U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Diversity Visa Program, <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/immigrate/Diversity-visa-program-entry/Diversity-visa-interview/Diversity-visa-after-the-interview.html#:~:text=A%20Diversity%20visa%20is%20usually,for%20less%20than%20six%20months>. (Last Accessed July 16, 2020).

⁵ WHITE HOUSE, Proclamation Suspending Entry of Aliens Who Present a Risk to the U.S. Labor Market Following the Coronavirus Outbreak, June 22, 2020, <https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/proclamation-suspending-entry-aliens-present-risk-u-s-labor-market-following-coronavirus-outbreak/> (Last Accessed July 16, 2020).

2020 proclamation extension has particularly harsh effects on Diversity Visa selectees.

9. The United States issues approximately 1.1 million new green cards each fiscal year. It is estimated that of those included in this number and affected by President Trump's proclamations are more than 44,000 Diversity selectees.

10. Diversity Visa selectees are now racing against the clock to obtain their visas prior to the end of the 2020 Fiscal Year on September 30, 2020.

Without judicial intervention, those who have not already entered the United States will not be able to pursue the Diversity Visa any further, nor pick up where they left off in the following Fiscal Year.

11. For Diversity Visa recipients, the harm caused by Trump's proclamations is immediate and particularly severe. Due to this extension, Diversity Visa recipients will, absolutely and irrevocably, lose their ability to immigrate to the United States, and specific and very difficult hardships on families and employers will result. Many of these Diversity Visa selectees and especially those who have actual visas, or have been interviewed, or were awaiting a scheduled interview had made substantial plans and had detrimentally relied on the actions of the US government prior to this Immigration Ban.

12. Some Diversity Visa selectees can Adjust Status through the Diversity Visa program (meaning they were previously lawfully admitted into the United States and have not accrued unlawful presence). The Proclamation does not apply to these selectees, as they are already located within the United States. The Proclamation does however apply to the vast majority of Diversity Visa selectees who are consular processing from abroad, meaning that they must obtain their visa stamps from a U.S. Embassy or Consulate, governed by the U.S. Department of State.

13. In a FAQ released by the Department of State, the Department acknowledged the potential for President Trump's proclamation to be extended indefinitely. It states that “[t]he [Diversity Visa] Program has multiple stages. [Diversity Visa]-2021 applicants won’t be interviewed until FY 2021. However, the suspension does apply to [Diversity applicants], with certain exceptions. The Proclamation will expire on December 31 unless extended.” (emphasis added).

Travel - State Dept @TravelGov · Jun 23

Q: Will this impact Diversity Visa applicants?

A: The DV Program has multiple stages. DV-2021 applicants won't be interviewed until FY2021. However, the suspension does apply to DV applicants, with certain exceptions. The Proclamation will expire on December 31 unless extended.

14. A Notice on the Department of State website states that individuals who were issued visas for the Diversity Visa-2020 Program that was valid effective April 23, 2020, but which expired due to an inability to travel, should contact the Embassy or Consulate where your visa was issued for further information.⁶ No solutions are offered, and when recipients contacted their assigned Embassy or Consulate regarding their visas, they are generally told that their Embassy or Consulate is closed until further notice, with no estimated time of reopening, or, worse, that no visa would be reissued to them.

15. The Department of State (and federal immigration law) states that all Diversity Visa-2020 entrants who were selected must be found eligible for, and obtain, their visa by September 30, 2020.⁷ However, because of the proclamation, tens of thousands of Diversity Visa selectees are now unable to get their interviews, and it appears clear that such individuals will lose eligibility if the ban is not lifted (and subsequent visa processing is completed) prior to September 30, 2020.

16. The Department of State has arbitrarily and capriciously taken the proclamation's suspension of entry as a suspension on the visa issuance, reissuance, and adjudication of Diversity Visa-2020 cases. Specifically, the Department of State has refused to reissue visas that have expired due the inability to travel to the U.S. during the Coronavirus pandemic, suspended processing of applications for Diversity Visa Applicant selectees, cancelled and/or suspended interviews at U.S. Embassies and Consulates, and has suspended final adjudications pre- and post-interview. This, despite the fact that the consulates remain staffed and clearly operating, given their statements that they can be contacted for undetermined emergency processing cases.

17. The proclamation, though potentially endless, is currently slated to expire on December 31, 2020—a duration four months longer than the predecessor proclamation.
18. Because the fiscal year expires September 30, 2020, the remainder of the Diversity Visa program for Fiscal Year (FY) 2020 will be eliminated.
19. The inability to immigrate to the United States for the Diversity Visa-2020 entrants has caused enormous hardship. Fees for visas will be lost and medical examinations for green cards will expire. Many applicants have quit their jobs and sold their homes due to their reliance on the ability to migrate to the United States through the Diversity Visa Program. Tens of thousands of applicants, including all 75 Plaintiffs, will be denied their opportunity to immigrate based solely on the fact that President Trump proclamation bars them from entering the country or because their visas expired prior to their ability to obtain transportation to the United States because of travel bans (some of which have now been lifted).

THE PARTIES

614. Plaintiff Ahmed Essam Abd Elaziez Mahmoud Youssef's documents were approved and he awaits an interview. However, due to the Department's sloth and policies suspending adjudication of his case, no interview was ever scheduled.

615. The adjudication of Plaintiff Ahmed Essam Abd Elaziez Mahmoud Youssef's application was indefinitely stopped due to the Proclamation that affected the Department's policies, procedures, and practices suspending adjudications of immigrant visa applications for DV-2020 program selectees.

Plaintiff Joseph Youssef

616. Plaintiff Joseph Youssef is a national of Egypt and is a DV-2020 selectee.

617. Plaintiff Joseph Youssef was invited to submit a DS-260, Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Application pursuant to his DV-2020 selection.

618. Plaintiff Joseph Youssef completed and submitted the documentation for adjudication of his DS-260, Immigrant Visa Application and Alien Registration.

619. The KCC assigned him the case number 2020AF00034956.

620. Plaintiff Joseph Youssef's documents were approved and he awaits an interview. However, due to the Department's sloth and policies suspending adjudication of his case, no interview was ever scheduled.

621. The adjudication of Plaintiff Joseph Youssef's application was indefinitely stopped due to the Proclamation that affected the Department's policies, procedures, and practices suspending adjudications of immigrant visa applications for DV-2020 program selectees.

Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan and Family

622. Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan is a native of Saudi Arabia and a DV-2020 selectee.

623. Maha Samy Ali Abdulhamid is a native of Saudi Arabia and spouse of Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan. Maha Samy Ali Abdulhamid is eligible to immigrate to the United States as a derivative beneficiary should her spouse be issued an immigrant visa pursuant to his DV-2020 selection.

624. Yousef Ahmed Mohamed Khalifa Aglan is a native of Saudi Arabia and child of Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan. Yousef Ahmed Mohamed Khalifa Aglan is eligible to immigrate to the United States as a derivative beneficiary should his father be issued an immigrant visa pursuant to his DV-2020 selection.

625. Nour Ahmed Mohamed Khalifa Aglan is a native of Saudi Arabia and child of Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan. Nour Ahmed Mohamed Khalifa Aglan is eligible to immigrate to the United States as a derivative beneficiary should his father be issued an immigrant visa pursuant to his DV-2020 selection.

626. Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan and his family were invited to submit a DS-260, Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Application pursuant to his DV-2020 selection.

627. Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan completed and submitted the documentation for adjudication of their DS-260, Immigrant Visa Application and Alien Registration.

628. The KCC assigned his the case number 2020AS00024021.

629. Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan's documents were approved and he awaits an interview. However, due to the Department's sloth and policies suspending adjudication of his case, no interview was ever scheduled.

630. The adjudication of Plaintiff Ahmed Aglan's application was indefinitely stopped due to the Proclamation that affected the Department's policies, procedures, and practices suspending adjudications of immigrant visa applications for DV-2020 program selectees.

Plaintiff Evgenia Gavrilova

631. Plaintiff Evgenia Gavrilova is a native of Russia and a DV-2020 selectee.

632. Plaintiff Evgenia Gavrilova was invited to submit a DS-260, Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Application pursuant to her DV-2020 selection.

633. Plaintiff Evgenia Gavrilova completed and submitted the documentation for adjudication of her DS-260, Immigrant Visa Application and Alien Registration.

634. The KCC assigned her the case number 2020EU00039871.

635. Plaintiff Evgenia Gavrilova's documents were approved and he awaits an interview. However, due to the Department's sloth and policies suspending adjudication of his case, no interview was ever scheduled.

636. The adjudication of Plaintiff Evgenia Gavrilova's application was indefinitely stopped due to the Proclamation that affected the Department's policies, procedures, and practices suspending adjudications of immigrant visa applications for DV-2020 program selectees.

637. Defendant Donald J. Trump is the President of the United States of America. He is sued in his official capacity.

638. Defendant United States Department of State is a federal agency of the United States.

639. Defendant Michael Pompeo is the Secretary of the United States Department of State. He is sued in his official capacity.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

640. This Court has jurisdiction over this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 (Federal Question Jurisdiction). This Court has authority to grant relief under the Mandamus Act (28 U.S.C. § 1361), the Declaratory Judgment Act (28 U.S.C. § 2201), and 5 U.S.C. § 702.

641. This Court can also compel agency action that is unlawfully withheld or which is contrary to law, an abuse of discretion, or arbitrary and capricious. 5 U.S.C. §§ 555(b), 706.

642. This Court also has jurisdiction to review executive action that is ultra vires. See Chamber of Commerce v. Reich, 74 F.3d 1322(D.C. Cir. 1996).

643. Venue in this judicial district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (e)(1)(A) because Defendant Trump and Pompeo are acting in their official capacity as President of the United States and Secretary of State reside in this District, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e)(1)(B) due to a substantial part of the events giving rise to the Plaintiffs' claims originating in this district.

644. All administrative remedies have been exhausted by Plaintiffs.

645. The Doctrine of Consular Non-Reviewability does not apply because Plaintiffs do not challenge final agency action in this case. Rather, Plaintiffs challenge the agency's delay and refusal to act based on the ultra vires actions of the Department of State and its authority to fail to act. See Patel v. Reno, 134 F.3d 929, 931 (9th Cir. 1997).

OVERVIEW OF THE LAW

646. The Supreme Court in Trump v. Hawaii, 138 S. Ct. 2392, 2411 (2018) stated that “[w]e may assume that §1182(f) does not allow the President to expressly override particular provisions of the INA.”

647. Unlike the ban challenged in Hawaii, the presidential proclamation prohibiting the Plaintiffs from entering the country supplants statutory and constitutional authority.

A. Diversity Visa Program

648. The Immigration Act of 1990 created the Diversity Immigrant Visa Program. The aim of this new program was to encourage greater Diversity in the individuals immigrating to the United States, allowing up to 50,000 visas per year to nationals of countries having low levels of immigration to the United States historically. Public Law 101-649; 8 U.S.C. § 1153(c).

649. In accordance with Congressional Mandate, the Department of State grants approximately 50,000 Diversity Immigrant Visas to individuals from the earlier mentioned countries sending a lower number of immigrants to the United States. The individuals are decided through a lottery system. The lucky individuals are selected and approved to receive these visas who are then granted admission to the United states as lawful permanent residents. See 8 U.S.C. §§1151(e); 1153(c);

650. Millions of potential immigrants around the world submit entries during the Diversity Visa Program application period hoping to be selected. Many applicants apply over multiple years without success. Importantly, under 8 USC § 1153(c)(1), an applicant is only eligible for admission under the Diversity Visa Program during the fiscal year and period he applied in. See also 9 FAM 502.6-2(a) and 502.6-4(b)(3).

651. The Department of State then randomly selects a number of entrants eligible under the Act for the Diversity immigrant visas for that specific fiscal year.

652. The Department of State's Kentucky Consular Center ("KCC") administers the Diversity Visa Program, which notifies the State Department's posts of the number of entrants selected in each processing area. See 9 FAM 502.6-4(c)(1)(a).

653. The Department of State maintains a computer-generated master list of all selected entrants. Id.

654. The entrants selected by the Department of State are notified of their selection and assigned a visa case number. Id.

655. However, merely being selected at this stage is not the end of the process. The individuals selected must submit a DS-260, Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Application with requisite supporting documents and the consular officers review for potential fraud indicators, at which point the case is considered “documentarily qualified” for purposes of visa appointment scheduling. See 9 FAM 502.6-4(c)(2)(c) and 502.6-4(d)(1)(a), (b).

656. According to the Foreign Affairs Manual (“FAM”), once the individual is considered “documentarily qualified” (i.e. vetted for potential fraud indicators and confirmed to have all the necessary documentation in order) the Department of State is to schedule the “documentarily qualified” individual for an interview at his or her United States Embassy or Consulate. 9 FAM 502.6-4(d)(1)(b).

657. Indeed, the FAM states at 9 FAM 502.6-4(d)(2) that the Kentucky Consular Center “will schedule an appointment for a “documentarily qualified” applicant when his or her regional lottery rank number is about to be become current.” (emphasis added).

658. Approval of an immigrant visa under the Diversity Visa Program is not discretionary. The selectee either qualifies or does not qualify. 22 C.F.R. § 40.6 states that an officer may only refuse issuing a visa “upon a ground specifically set out in the law or implementing regulations.”

B. 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f) - Presidential Proclamations

659. 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f) (Section 212(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act) allows the President to temporarily suspend entry of any class of immigrants or nonimmigrants if he finds that their entry would be detrimental to the interests of the United States. Because the proclamation refers to entry and mentions 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f), it is clear that the proclamation does not apply to persons in the Diversity Visa program who are adjusting status, as no new entry is required.

660. Therefore, the President’s June 22, 2020 Presidential Proclamation must find that the entry of Plaintiffs “would be detrimental to the interests of the United States.” See 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f).

661. If a detrimental interest is identified warranting suspension of entry by a class of immigrants, the President must state the period for which he intends to suspend immigration of these classes. Id. There is no provision stating that he may do so indefinitely.

PLAINTIFFS’ FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. DIVERSITY VISAS ARE CURRENT

662. It was the will of Congress to increase diversity among the immigration population when they created the Diversity Visa program.

663. Without the Diversity Visa program, the overall diversity of the immigrant population would be substantially diminished, which is contrary to the will of Congress when they created the Diversity Visa program.

664. A Visa Bulletin for the Diversity Visa program is published every month by the Department of State, which announces the availability of immigrant visas in the current fiscal-year's Diversity Visa program.

665. Where a selected individual's visa shows as current on the bulletin mentioned above, that individual is entitled to an interview appointment at his or her Embassy or Consulate. Indeed, the FAM indicates that the individual should be scheduled for their interview appointment before the visa becomes current.

666. The Visa Bulletin issued by the U.S. Department of State in July 2020 indicates under its Diversity Immigrant Category that all Plaintiffs are current and have available immigrant visas. See Visa Bulletin for July, Number 43, Volume X, Department of State, Washington, D.C., available at <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/legal/visa-law0/visa-bulletin/2020/visa-bulletin-for-july-2020.html/>.

667. The President of the United States has repeatedly called for an end to the Diversity Visa program, and he is now doing so by Presidential Proclamation, and appears to be doing so indefinitely, which violates the plain language of 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PRETEXT

668. Although the Presidential Proclamation broadly states that immigrants will have an “impact” on the U.S. labor market, it does not state what that impact would be nor the support an inference of detriment to the labor market with any citation to economic expertise.

669. Rather, it appears that President Trump’s given reason for suspending immigration to Diversity Visa winners is pretextual given his social media stances vehemently denouncing the program.

670. On November 1, 2017 he equated Diversity Visa immigrants to terrorists:

671. Minutes later, President Trump tweeted again stating that he was going to be “much tougher” on the Diversity Visa Lottery Program:

Donald J. Trump ✓
@realDonaldTrump

We are fighting hard for Merit Based immigration, no more Democrat Lottery Systems. We must get MUCH tougher (and smarter). @foxandfriends

672. On November 2, 2017, President Trump called on Congress to terminate the Diversity Visa lottery program, stating in the embedded video that the Diversity Visa Program was “a disaster for our country,” and “the people put in that lottery are not that country’s finest,” and “it’s a very unsafe program for our country, and we are not going to allow it to happen.” (Emphasis added):

Donald J. Trump ✓
@realDonaldTrump

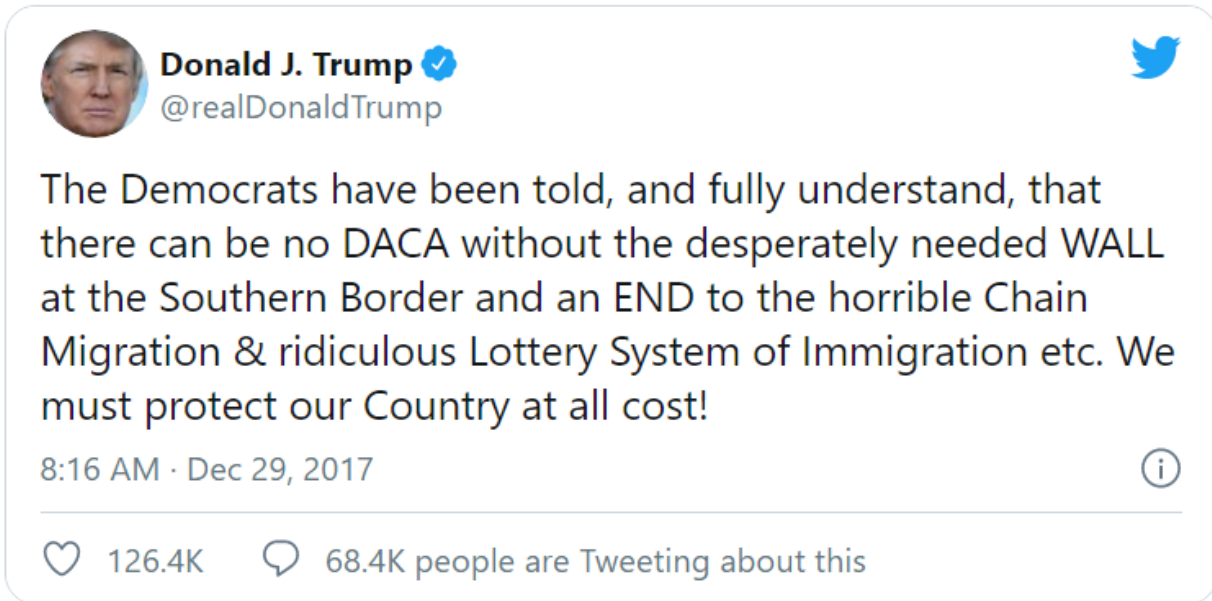

I am calling on Congress to TERMINATE the diversity visa lottery program that presents significant vulnerabilities to our national security.

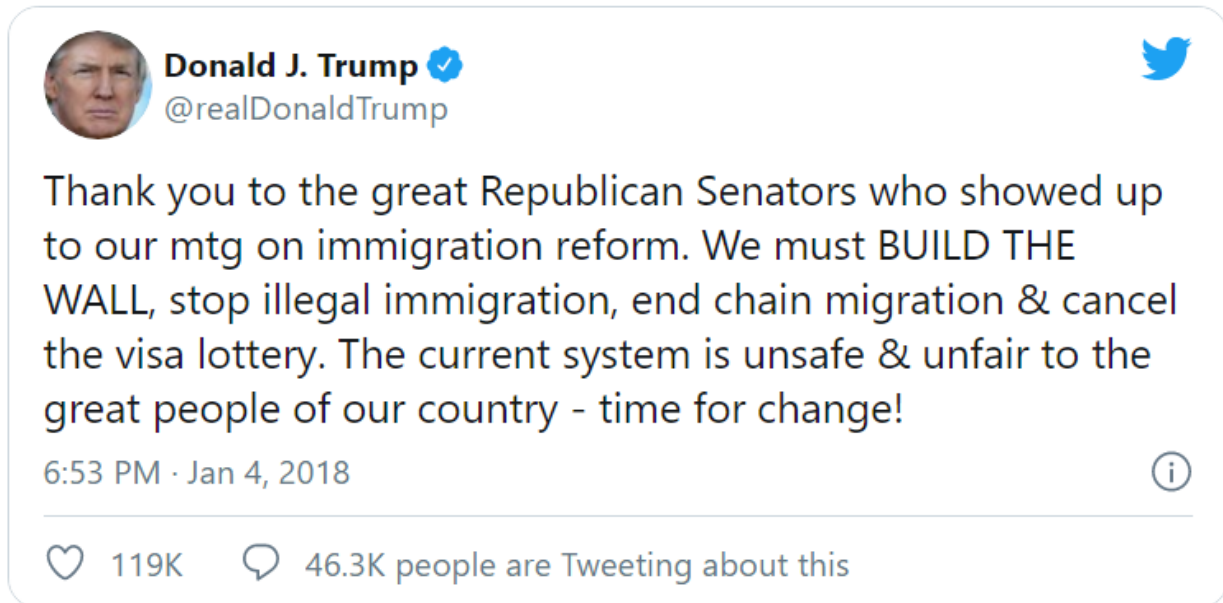

673. In an address on December 15, 2017, the President stated, “[t]hey have a lottery. You pick people. Do you think the country is giving us their best people? No. What kind of system is that? They come in by lottery. They give us their worst people, they put them in a bin, but in his hand, when he’s picking them is, really, the worst of the worst. Congratulations, you’re going to the United States. Okay. What a system—lottery system. We’re calling for Congress . . . to end the visa lottery system.”⁸

674. On December 29, 2017, the President tweeted again, this time calling the Lottery System of Immigration “ridiculous.”:

675. Again, on January 4, 2018, the President called for the end of the Diversity Visa Program stating that it was “unsafe and unfair,” far before the present pandemic and the turn of the economy:

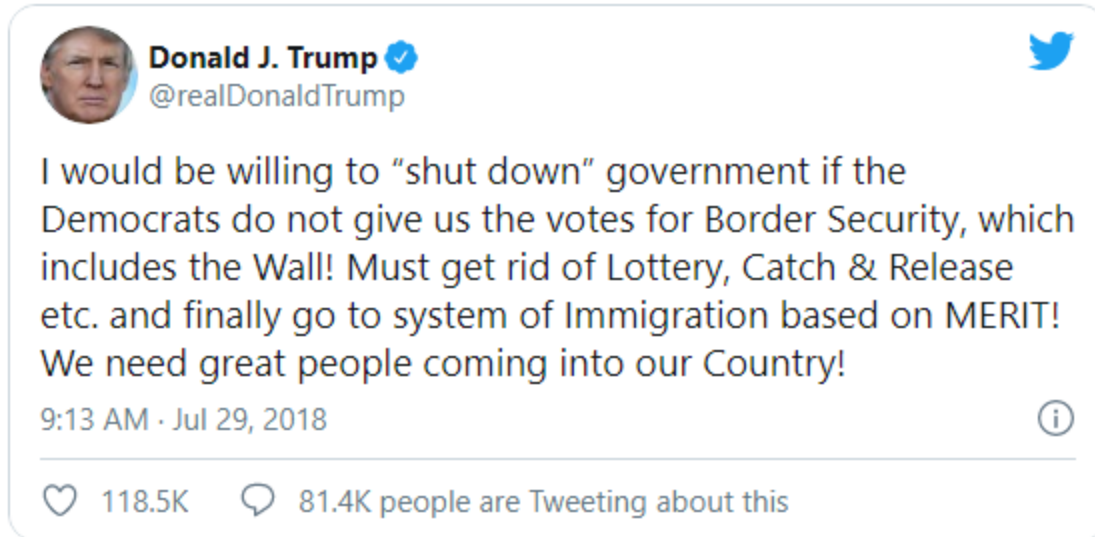

676. On January 16, 2018, the President of the United States implied that Diversity Visa Program immigrants were “dangerous.”:

677. In an address on February 14, 2020, President Trump stated, “[a]nd then you have the lottery. It’s a horror show, because when counties put people into the lottery, they’re not putting you in; they’re putting some very bad people in the lottery. It’s common sense. If I ran a country, and if I have a lottery system of people going to the United States, I’m not going to put in my stars; I’m going to put in people I don’t want.”⁹

678. On July 29, 2018, the President of the United States stated that he was “willing to ‘shut down’ the government” if Congress did not get rid of the Diversity Visa Program.:

⁹ AP NEWS, AP Fact Check: Trump spins fiction about Diversity Visas, February 18, 2019, <https://apnews.com/56e8c95dab1345bbac9d065eaa1b8152> (Last Accessed July 16, 2020).

679. At a campaign rally on August 1, 2019, President Trump said of the Diversity Visa Program, “And you pick people out of the lottery. Well let’s see, this one is a murderer, this one robbed four banks, this one I better not say, this one another murderer, ladies and gentleman, another murderer. Do you think [countries] are going to put their great citizens . . . into a lottery? No. . . . Look at the people they put into these lotteries. It’s a disgrace.”¹⁰

680. As is demonstrated above, it is President Trump’s ultimate goal to end the Diversity Visa Program by any means possible. When Congress would not do it for him, he used the Coronavirus pandemic as a weapon and pretext to exclude these immigrants, the Plaintiffs.

681. In a FAQ prepared by the U.S. Department of State, the Department acknowledges that the June 22, 2020 Proclamation applies to Diversity Visa applicants.

682. The Department of State further acknowledged that DV-2020 applicants must obtain their visa or adjust status by September 30, 2020, and that there will be no carry over for DV-2020 applicants if they are unable to obtain their visas (even through no fault of their own) prior to the above date.

683. In random responses to questions on Twitter, the Department of State affirmatively and incorrectly states that the Proclamation suspends the issuance of Diversity Visas, and that they will not issue any Diversity Visas while the Proclamation is in place.

684. The Department of State indicated that it will not issue Diversity Visas even for DV-2020 applicants who attended their interviews, paid, and passed the interview, but have not received a visa.

685. Despite indicating that persons unable to travel to the U.S. even with valid immigrant visas at the time of the Proclamation should contact their embassies, the Department of State has failed to reissue new visas to Diversity Visa holders who had approved visas prior to the proclamation's issuance, but who were unable to enter the United States due to the Coronavirus epidemic.

686. On July 16, 2020, the Department of State stated, "Applicants for immigrant visas covered by the proclamation, including Diversity Visa 2020 (DV-2020) applicants, who have not been issued an immigrant visa as of April 23 are subject to the proclamation's restrictions unless eligible for an exception. No valid visas will be revoked under this proclamation."¹¹

CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Unlawful Proclamation Pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f))

687. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments stated above as though restated here.

688. The President's June 22, 2020 Presidential Proclamation broadly states, without citation to any authority, that the entry of all immigrants and non-immigrants affected by this proclamation would be detrimental to the interests of the United States because they would have an "impact" on the United States labor market. The Presidential proclamation does not state what that "impact" would be and does not provide the requisite analysis as to why that impact would be detrimental to the United States.

689. Although 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f) bestows broad authority on the President to suspend certain classes of aliens, the language clearly states that the President must find a detriment, not broadly claim an "impact," as he does in his June 22, 2020 filing.

690. In addition, the Plaintiffs, unlike the other classes listed in the immigration ban, are not foreign nationals seeking employment in the United States. They are Diversity Visa Program selectees, and are therefore not a threat to U.S. workers or the labor market. Rather, they would actually be lawful permanent residents upon admission, and thus themselves would be “U.S. Workers.” 8 U.S.C. § 1153(c); 8 U.S.C. § 1255.

691. The President’s social media history proves his animus towards the Diversity Visa program as highlighted above, thereby calling any finding of detriment made by the President into question as pretextual. The President cites to no economic data justifying his immigration ban against Plaintiffs. In addition, the immigration ban does not apply to those seeking Diversity Visas within the United States, so any claimed impact has to be viewed with extreme suspicion since the ban only bars Diversity Visa applicants outside the United States.

692. The President’s new immigration ban also includes persons accompanying or following to join the principal immigrant, including minor children, who would by no means compete with U.S. workers nor have any detrimental effect on the U.S. labor market.

693. In addition, the President’s Proclamation is indefinite in nature, which exceeds the scope and power provided to him by 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f). Although the Proclamation states that it will expire on December 31, 2020, it further states that it “may be continued as necessary.”

694. At first glance, this may seem to comply with the language of the statute. However, when considered together with the first proclamation it is clear that the President intends to indefinitely continue the suspension of immigration for Plaintiffs. The previous proclamation, which was made in April 2020, was set to expire in June 2020. The newest proclamation extends the suspension on Plaintiffs ability to immigrate until December 2020. The Proclamation has rendered no analysis to show that Plaintiffs are a threat to the labor market, and many studies on immigrants would suggest that the opposite is true. Therefore, President Trump is unable to show that this extension was “necessary,” and it appears that he intends to extend it indefinitely, particularly if reelected.

695. The notion that this immigration ban is actually one of permanence is further supported by the fact that President Trump’s administration has never ended any of the many similar immigration bans imposed under 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f) that were previously issued. All remain in existence.

696. This Court should find that President Trump’s April 22, 2020 and June 22, 2020 Presidential Proclamations violate 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Arbitrary and Capricious Actions and Abuse of Discretion in Violation of the Administrative Procedures Act (5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A))

697. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

698. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 701(b)(1), the Department of State is subject to the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”).

699. This Court may review and set aside all relevant questions of law regarding agency actions that are arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law. This Court may further review and set aside actions in excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or without observance of procedure required by law. 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A), (C), (D).

700. The implementation by the Department of State of the President’s June 2020 Proclamation suspending the ability of Diversity Visa immigrants and applicants to immigrate to the United States constitutes final agency action, which is reviewable by this Court pursuant to the APA.

701. The agency actions of suspending the adjudication of immigrant visas for the Diversity Visa Program is arbitrary and capricious and abuses agency discretion because the Department of State lacked authority to suspend adjudications of immigrant visas for the Diversity Visa program.

702. The agency actions of suspending issuance of immigrant visas or reissuance of the same for the Diversity Visa Program is arbitrary and capricious and abuses agency discretion because the Department of State lacked the authority to suspend issuance or reissuance of immigrant visas for the Diversity Visa Program.

703. The Presidential proclamations that limit the entry of immigrants to the United States do not limit the issuance of visas or adjudication of cases in the Diversity Visa Program.

704. As such, this Court should order the Department of State to resume issuing and reissuing visas to Plaintiffs and resume adjudication of all Diversity Visa selectees prior to the September 30, 2020 deadline, and in an expedited manner to ensure applications are adjudicated before the deadline.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Agency Failure to Observe Procedure Required by Law in Violation of the Administrative Procedures Act (5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(D))

705. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

706. The APA requires the Department of State to follow notice-and-comment rulemaking procedures to promulgate substantive rules. 5 U.S.C. § 553.

707. The Department of State was not allowed to suspend issuance of visas or adjudication of cases for the Diversity Visa Program without giving notice and providing opportunity to comment. 5 U.S.C. § 558(c).

708. The Department of State did not follow notice-and-comment rulemaking procedures.

709. In suspending issuance or reissuance visas or continue to adjudicate cases, the Department of State violated the APA's requirement to follow notice-and-comment rulemaking procedures, and this court has authority to compel this unlawfully withheld action. 5 U.S.C. § 706(1).

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Non-Statutory Action for Ultra Vires Conduct)

710. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

711. The Presidential Proclamations issued on April 22, 2020 and June 22, 2020 were issued outside of the jurisdictional limitations of the INA.

712. The Proclamation's suspension and limitation of the entry of foreign nationals arriving to the United States through the Diversity Visa Program constitutes an ultra vires attempt to regulate the domestic economy.

713. The Department of State's expansion of the Proclamation's suspension on the entry of Plaintiffs to the issuance and reissuance of visas and the adjudication of applications constitutes an ultra vires action and is contrary to the INA.

714. As such, this Court should order the Department of State to resume issuing and reissuing visas to Plaintiffs and resume adjudication of all Diversity Visa selectees prior to the September 30, 2020 deadline.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Agency Action Unlawfully Withheld in Violation of the Administrative Procedures Act (5 U.S.C. § 555(b); 5 U.S.C. § 706(1))

715. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

716. The Department of State has withheld from acting on Plaintiffs' cases without authority to do so. Actions which are ultra vires to the INA.

717. Because the Proclamation is ultra vires and because the State Department's application of the proclamation is ultra vires, their suspension of adjudication and issuance of visas constitutes unlawfully withheld action, which can be compelled by this Court under 5 U.S.C. § 706(1).

718. The Department of State has a nondiscretionary duty to "conclude a matter presented to it . . . within a reasonable time." 5 U.S.C. § 555(b).

719. The Department of State has failed to adjudicate and issue visas for the Diversity Visa program selectees (the Plaintiffs) and their derivative beneficiaries within a reasonable time.

720. The Department of State's actions in suspending issuance and reissuance of visas as well as for adjudication of the 2020 Diversity Visa program participants have been effect since at least March 2020.
721. There are just over 2 months left for the Department of State to adjudicate cases prior to the end of the Fiscal Year (September 30, 2020) for the 2020 Diversity Visa program.
722. If the agency is allowed to continue the ultra vires and unlawful suspensions past the September 30, 2020 deadline, Plaintiffs will be barred from obtaining visas for the 2020 Diversity Visa program and will be forced to enter the lottery again, likely never to again be selected.
723. With just over two months remaining in the program, the Department of State has clearly failed to conclude the matter within a reasonable time, even in light of the Coronavirus pandemic. Many of Plaintiffs have already been interviewed, and thus any agency action does not require them to "open" to the public.
724. As such, this Court should order the Department of State to resume issuing and reissuing visas to Plaintiffs and resume adjudication of all Diversity Visa selectees prior to the September 30, 2020 deadline and to adjudicate the same in an expedited manner as necessary to complete processing prior to September 30, 2020.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Take Care Clause of the U.S. Const., Art. II, § 3, Cl. 5)

725. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.
726. The Department of State's actions violate the President's Constitutional duty to "take care that the laws be faithfully executed." U.S. Const. Art. II § 3, Cl. 5.
727. The President's invocations of dispensing power are judicially enforceable. See e.g., Angelus Milling Co. V. Comm'r of Internal Revenue, 325 U.S. 293, 296 (1945).
728. The Take Care Clause imposes upon the president a mandate to respect the work and role of Congress.
729. Congress made its intent clear in the INA regarding the adjudication and issuance of visas for the Diversity Visa program. Therefore, the State Department's unlawful and ultra vires suspension of and untimely adjudication of cases and issuance or reissuance of visas is "unfaithful" to the INA, and thus an invalid action under the Take Care Clause. See 8 U.S.C. § 1201(a)

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Due Process Clause of the U.S. Const, Amend. V)

730. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

731. Plaintiffs have a cognizable due process right.

732. Because the Department of State has not provided any notice or meaningful opportunity to comment on its application of the Presidential Proclamations, the Department of State's refusal to issue or reissue visas or adjudicate applications is an unconstitutional violation of the due process clause.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the U.S. Const, Amend. V)

733. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

734. Defendants' refusal to issue visas to immigrants in the Diversity Visa program who consular process from abroad while simultaneously continuing to issue visas to immigrants in the Diversity Visa program inside the United States (through adjustment of status) constitutes a violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the United States, because it causes a disparate impact on the Plaintiffs and is not made with a rational basis.

735. Those individuals who receive their Diversity Visas from inside the United States are just as likely to enter the labor pool as those participating in the program outside the United States. Therefore, not only does President Trump’s pretextual and extremely vague finding of “impact” on the labor market not hold water because of his preexisting animus toward the Diversity Visa program, it also violates the Constitution in that two groups within the same program are treated disparately without a rational basis for treating them differently.

736. Thus, this Court should declare as unconstitutional the disparate treatment of Plaintiffs and order Defendants to adjudicate their claims, issue visas, and allow their admission into the United States.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

737. Plaintiffs reserve the right to add additional allegations of agency error and related causes of action upon receiving the certified administrative record.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Court grant the following relief:

- (1) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;

(2) Enjoin the Department of State from suspending issuance and reissuance of visas for the Diversity Visa Program and from otherwise suspending the adjudication of Diversity Visa Program cases.

(3) Order the immediate entry of Plaintiffs who have been denied entry despite having a validly issued Diversity Visas;

(4) Order the immediate reissuance of visa stamps to Plaintiffs whose visas have expired due to their not being able to enter the United States during the Coronavirus pandemic;

(5) Order the immediate issuance of visa stamps to Plaintiffs who have been approved but who have not received their visa stamps;

(6) Order the immediate rescheduling of interviews for Plaintiffs who have submitted the required documentation and who either had their interviews cancelled or who are waiting on new interviews, and that if approved visas for these Plaintiffs will be expeditiously issued; and

(7) Order that all of the above shall be done prior to the expiry of the Diversity Visa-2020 program on September 30, 2020.

(8) Alternatively, in equity, extend the validity period of the Diversity Visa-2020 selectees to September 30, 2021.

(9) Award Plaintiffs costs of suit and reasonable attorney's fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 42 U.S.C. §1988, and any other applicable law; and

(10) Enter all necessary writs, injunctions, and orders as justice and equity require.

(11) Grant such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
