Uncovering Hidden Wealth – Ways to Stop Offshore Secrecy

A promotional poster for a conference. The background is a scenic landscape of a mountain valley with green fields, a winding road, and snow-capped mountains under a blue sky with clouds. Overlaid on the right side is a dark teal semi-transparent area containing white text. The text reads: "UNCOVERING HIDDEN WEALTH - WAYS TO STOP OFFSHORE SECRECY" in large, bold, white capital letters. Below this, it says "10TH MAY 2022 | 4 PM - 6 PM" in a smaller white font. Further down, the location is listed: "UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN ØSTER FARIMAGSGADE 5 BUILDING 35, ROOM 35.01.06". At the bottom left of the teal area is the EUTAX Observatory logo, and at the bottom right is the Oxfam IBIS logo, which consists of a green circle with a white person icon and the text "OXFAM IBIS" in green.

The EU Tax Observatory and Oxfam IBIS invite you to a joint conference on “Uncovering Hidden Wealth – Ways to Stop Offshore Secrecy”. The conference will take place on 10th

4 pm – 6 pm at the University of Copenhagen, Øster Farimagsgade 5, m 35.01.06.

The event will bring forth pertinent issues of offshore secrecy, financial transparency and wealth ownership. Revelations of hidden wealth through the use of tax havens and their enablers (as evidenced by leaks, academic research and recent sanctions) have increased public awareness and call for urgent policy solutions. The event seeks to provide a space to discuss the latest developments in offshore secrecy, complemented with the most recent research, and to become a catalyst for the generation of innovative proposals.

ECONOMIC
INEQUALITY

Inequality across people in income, wealth and health arises from differences in circumstances and differences in behavior. Much economic research on the causes of inequality focuses on circumstances. CEBI asks: What is the role of individual behavior in generating unequal outcomes? Answering this question is fundamental for understanding the sources of inequality, how policy affects inequality, and how circumstances and behavior interact to reduce or produce inequality.

CEBI aims to address the role of behavior in generating inequality and the underlying sources of such behavioral inequality. We exploit the globally unique Danish data research infrastructure to combine population administrative registers on individuals' choices and outcomes with information about their behavioral characteristics obtained from large-scale controlled experiments and large-scale surveys.
